Academic Piano Music Club

Academic Piano Music Club is an organization affiliated with the Florida Federation of Music Clubs and National Federation of Music Clubs.

Members of the Academic Piano Club will have opportunity to play in numerous recitals and public performances during the year, and participate at the Bay Ridge District Federation Festival and Florida Junior State Convention.

RECITALS (refer to the calendar for specific dates and times)

Theme (costume) Recital
UPMTA Festival
Community Outreach Recitals
Holiday Recital
Spring Award Recital

BAY RIDGE DISTRICT FEDERATION FESTIVAL

The National Federation of Music Clubs Festival provides young musicians (through age 18) and adults (ages 19 and above), opportunity and encouragement for continued musical growth.

There are over 140 separate events. Entrants do not compete against each other, but are rated on their individual merits. Ratings are as following: Superior, Excellent, Very Good, Satisfactory, etc. Every student receiving a Superior rating will obtain a National Honor Certificate and would be eligible to participate in State Convention.

All candidates in the Festival Program are eligible to receive a Gold Cup and Silver Cup (Adults), which are awarded on a point system based on Festival ratings.

Participation is optional but strongly encouraged.

RATES

Membership fee for the Academic Piano Club is $20 per year. Fee includes hall rentals, program preparation, etc., and ALL students are required to become members.

Festival and Gold Cup cost is additional.
